

Give the Canine Benefactors Society a gift or gifts that keep on giving...

Would you like to help provide Canine Benefactors Society with much needed financial support to continue their good work?

Did you know that you may designate the Canine Benefactors Society as a beneficiary (of all or part) of your pension and other investment plans?

Did you know that you can start an investment account and designate Canine Benefactors Society as the beneficiary?

Did you know that there is such a thing as a Charitable Donation Fund (in your name - i.e. "John Henry Stratford Legacy Fund") from which you may designate Canine Benefactors Society to receive a legacy of your perpetual financial support.

There are many options in which you may be able to help yourself today, plan your future, and help the Canine Benefactors Society help those needing help.

Designating the Canine Benefactors Society as a beneficiary allows you to make a valued donation to the welfare of dogs and those who love them.

If you want to make a lasting donation, please direct any questions you may have regarding this lasting legacy to InvestmentPlan@caninebenefactors.com and an Investment Advisor will contact you.

In your email, please provide your name and phone number.
